

WOMEN IN TODAY'S ECONOMIC CRISIS

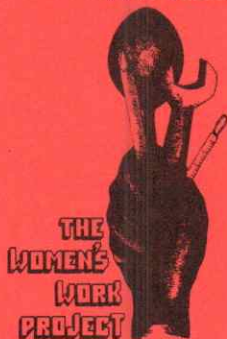

WOMEN IN TODAY'S ECONOMIC CRISIS

written by

THE WOMEN'S WORK PROJECT

Florence Dinerstein
Lori Helmbold
Nancy Wiegiersma

Union for Radical Political Economics
Political Education and Action Project

For more copies write to:

Women's Work Project
Box 462
Silver Spring, Maryland 20907

© May, 1975
Updated March, 1977

50¢ per copy: add 10% for postage (minimum 25¢)
bulk rate (10 and over) 33% discount

Where to get additional information on the types of organizing we have discussed. A partial list of ORGANIZATIONS.

Public Employees

Terry Murray
City Women for Action
140 Clarendon Street
Boston, Mass.

Affirmative Action—(dealing with Sears)

National Organization for Women
Sears Subcommittee
Mary Jean Collins Robeson
1957 E 73rd St.
Chicago, Illinois 60649

Women's Employment

Women Organized for Employment
Room 773
593 Market Street
San Francisco, California 94105

Union W.A.G.E.
P.O. Box 462
Berkeley, California 94701

Women in Unions

Coalition of Labor Union Women
8731 East Jefferson Avenue
Detroit, Michigan 48214

Consumer Boycott

United Farmworkers Union—La Paz
P.O. Box 62
Keene, California 93531

Public Utilities

Science for the People
c/o Joe Schwartz
115 W. 15th St.
New York, N.Y. 10011

Organizing Clerical Workers

9 to 5, Organization for Women
Office Workers
YWCA, 140 Clarendon St.
Boston, Mass. 02116

Women Employed
37 South Wabash St.
Chicago, Ill. 60603

Clerical Research and Action

Women Office Workers
600 Lexington Ave.
New York, N.Y. 10022

Information on Women in Poverty

National Organization for Women
Women in Poverty Taskforce
Mary Jo Binder
1424 16th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Day Care

Labor Pains Collective
P.O. Box 72
Cambridge, Mass. 02138

Day Care Workers

Women's Group
Organization of Day Care Workers
42 Walnut St.
Summerville, Mass. 02143

Tenants Strikes

Metropolitan Council on Housing
24 West 30th Street
New York, N.Y. 10001